Local Artist Shows Latest Work in Area

Torrance artist Jack Sturnacle is currently staging a one-man show at the Three Lions Restaurant in Redondo Beach.

Sturnacle, 20550 S. Earl Ave., is formerly of Barstow. He studied under his mother, artist- pianist Elizabeth Stinson.

Seascapes, wild birds, desert panoramas, and winter and fall trees are among the many subjects of Sturnacle's paintings.

Married, and the father of five children, Sturnacle is currently working on a canvas of Vernal Falls in Yosemite National Park. The painting is a special commission.

Dr. Bench Will Speak Today at Rotarians Meet

Dr. Robert E. Bench, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Glendale, will be the speaker at the Hollywood Riviera Rotary Club today. He will speak on "Civilized to Death."

President Jack Spencer reports that a number of donations to the Biff Cunningham Memorial Youth Building have been made. The family requested donations to the fund in lieu of flowers. Cunningham died in a plane crash last week.

Rubbish Pickup Delayed One Day

Labor Day, Sept. 3, will be a holiday for city rubbish pickup crews.

Rubbish will be picked up one day later during the week, according to City Manager Wade Peebles.

Four Amigos Make Music At Fun Spot

Latin American music is currently being featured at the Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes. The Four Amigos, the largest export from Puerto Rico, will open Tuesday evening.

The quartet is a versatile vocal and instrumental group. They feature ballads, rock 'n roll, show tunes, and bouncy Latin rhythms.

Dahlia Society Schedules Show

Inglewood's Dahlia Society will hold its 31st annual Dahlia Show Saturday and Sunday in the Inglewood National Guard Armory.

On view will be 10,000 sq. ft. of dahlia displays, specimen blooms and flower arrangements in the largest of the many display dahlia shows held on the West Coast.

Admission is free. Show hours are 2 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Saturday and 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Sunday. Free bouquets of dahlia blooms will be given away during the show.
